

North Carolina Association of Launderers and Cleaners COVID-19 One-Year Check-In Event

Virtual via Zoom
March 26, 2021

The restrictions imposed by COVID-19 are still preventing in-person meetings. However, we want to stay in touch and this event is designed to help you reconnect with other launderers and cleaners throughout North Carolina and to provide opportunities for information sharing and support among the participants. You are invited to join your colleagues and friends for this event via Zoom.

Who: NCALC members and non-members alike are encouraged to register and participate in the meeting and to invite their colleagues and friends of the Fabricare Industry to join us. Program content is designed primarily for owners, managers, and other key employees of the Fabricare Industry.

What: This special event will offer a unique educational program featuring owners and managers reflecting on the past year of dealing with COVID-19 and how they plan to move their businesses in a positive direction going forward. They will be discussing lessons learned, opportunities discovered, and strategies for going forward. Participants are invited to share their own experiences.

Registration: ADVANCE REGISTRATION FOR THIS EVENT IS REQUIRED. Discounts are available for NCALC members and for early registrations received by March 12. REGISTRATION WILL CLOSE at 5pm on Thursday March 25. Cancellations through March 19 will be accepted, with refunds provided. There will be no refunds for registrations cancelled at later times.

Participating in the COVID-19 Check-In Event: Our event will be conducted virtually utilizing the Zoom platform. Instructions for joining our Zoom session via the internet or phone will be sent to all event registrants in advance of the Event.
